

Author Media Kit

Maggie Barla

Literary Fiction & Speculative Fiction Author

About the Author

Maggie Barla writes literary and speculative fiction that explores the unseen forces shaping human lives. Her work blends emotional depth with metaphysical suspense, focusing on connection, intuition, hope, and the quiet struggle between creation and destruction. Her short story Moon Song was published in Punt Volat literary magazine.

Current Project

The Space Between Us

Six-year-old Samuel senses an ancient darkness moving beneath the surface of his small town. While adults dismiss strange events as coincidence, Samuel realizes an invisible force feeds on fear, silence, and innocence. As imagination and reality begin to merge, he must trust the mysterious awareness that sets him apart before the Monster grows too powerful.

Genre

Literary Fiction • Speculative Fiction • Metaphysical Suspense

Selected Publication

- 'Moon Song' — published in Punt Volat literary magazine.

Interview Topics

- Writing intuitive and emotionally resonant fiction
- The intersection of literary fiction and speculative storytelling
- Creativity, imagination, and unseen human connections
- The path to publication and independent authorship

Contact

Website: professionaladminsolutions.com (update with author website if applicable)

Email: maggie@maggiebarla.com

This media kit is intended for bookstores, media outlets, podcasts, reviewers, and event organizers. Replace placeholder contact information before publishing.